Gov. Beckham pardoned four Henderson grocery firms which formed a trust, but made no profit out of it.

Now that the Democrats of Montgomery have named their candidates for county officers it would be in order for Republicans to begin to name their candidates.

Is Mt. Sterling a boom? In whatever direction you may go are signs of progress. Water pipe here and there, groups talking of a system of sewerage, items in almost every issue regarding the visit of some man to our place with the view of locating. Contractors all busy and business good in every department.

The Frankfort City Council has determined to take steps to prevent the indiscriminate sale of cocaine by local druggists. The City Attorney was directed to draw up an ordinance fixing heavy penalties for the sale of the drug except on prescription of a physician.

NEW ORLEANS.

If you have never visited New Orleans you certainly will take advantage of the low railroad rate and special hotel accommodations for the Southern Baptist Convention for the Southern Baptist Convention which meets in the largest most important and most picturesque Southern city. New Orleans is the largest cotton market in the world. Here is located the great Tulane University, Jesuit College and Ursuline Convent. There are sixty Baptist Churches in the city. Thousands of Baptists will be in the city. New Orleans will spread herself to show this crowd every courtesy. This is the most favorable opportunity you'll ever have to visit this Queen City of the South. The journey across our lovely southern country in May-time will be one continuous succession of joy and surprises in green fields, blooming hedges, woods variegated with many-colored wild flowers, an atmosphere laden with perfume from southern flowers and fruits. You can't afford to miss it. Write to J. W. Heiden that you are going and he will give you additional information which you will appreciate. Tickets are on sale 7th, 8th and 9th of May.

We are grieved to know that some thoughtless election officers by questioning the rights of some of our elderly Democrats brought reproach to the Democratic party and gave Republicans a theme from which they will attempt to make votes, or at least, by appealing to passion, keep Democrats from voting their sentiments. No Democrat should be questioned as to his intentions. He has a right to vote in all primaries and if he should violate his obligation, that is with him, and a matter we cannot avoid. The Democratic party is liberty-loving, free from party lash, and whenever we, by our representatives, assume to dominate them we become Republicans in spirit. The Democratic Committee should be careful to appoint for election officers only level-headed men; dispassionate and free from any revengeful spirit, and then to so instruct them that every man, if he has been irregular, may return in full fellowship to the fold or if of an other party he may be enrolled as a convert from political error.

The Methodist Conference of the M. E. Church South, had its annual meeting last week at New Orleans, at which work during the past year was reviewed and plans were laid for the coming year. Next week the Southern Baptist will also hold its annual meeting in the Crescent City, when they will report on work done and formulate plans for the future, and this week President McKinley will be there; he will be the whole show; will report to the people how he has done them through the trusts, and in the future will do them some more.

The residents of Anchorage, a railroad station twelve miles east of Louisville, will issue $30,000 worth of bonds for improvements. An object lesson this for Mt. Sterling. Had the money been spent in Mt. Sterling that has been used by our citizens in boosting other places our borders would be somewhere out in what is now the country and where our farms are now would be business blocks, street railways, manufacturing sites, etc.

Mr. Z. T. Young has announced as a candidate for County Attorney of Rowan county. We are glad Rowan county Democrats are looking up their best men and demanding that they represent the county. Mr. Young is a talented young man, attentive to business and in every way qualified to discharge the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of all lovers of law and order.

FINAL ASSESSMENTS.

The State Board of Equalization has made final assessments in the following counties: Harrison lands raised 4 per cent, Nicholas, 10 per cent, Floyd, 11 per cent, Lee, not changed.

In Great Britain and Germany societies exist whose business it is to promote the emigration of women. Of this a scribe pondered well for he broke out in common prose and said it is not a bad thing, for it women over here in America continue to wear the breeches and persist in doing men's work, then we must have imported women for domestic purposes, to become wives and save the dry goods business from going to pieces. The scribe furnishes a topic for serious meditation.

President McKinley and party left Washington on yesterday for an extended trip to the South and West, New Orleans and San Francisco.

A Democrat.

Once in a great political gathering the Democratic party was in a dead-lock. Many ballots had been taken and not a few men becoming tired, some getting mad, when a large man of more than 300 avoirdupois was seen in an aisle calling at the top of his voice, "Mr. Chairman! Mr. Chairman!" and when recognized said, "Mr. Chairman, I am a Democrat." This is what I desire to say to the voters of Montgomery county: "I am a Democrat," who, defeated for the nomination for County Attorney, hold myself ready to bring out every Democratic voter in the interest of the party. Mr. Thomas can command me and I will work as hard and do as valuable service for him as I would for myself, and will see to it that every one of my friends is in line for the nominee. I am thankful for the very liberal support received and will ever remember with gratitude my friends. "I am a Democrat."

"Sparks From the Anvil."

You have heard of men becoming famous by a thought and even an expression. This is true as regards Rev. Homer T. Wilson, of the Christian church, Texas, who will on next Thursday evening, May 1, lecture at the Opera House on the theme that made him famous in an hour, "Sparks From the Anvil." The women of the Baptist church have the management of this entertainment and will see that every person who attends is as comfortably seated as possible. There will be a large crowd to hear Mr. Wilson. Indeed, he should attract more people than has ever listened to a lecturer here. Pleasant, beautiful in speech, profound in thought, and so funny that the hearers laugh their sides sore. Secure tickets early from the ladies who will wait on you at J. M. Isola's.

CYCLE TOUR CLUBS.

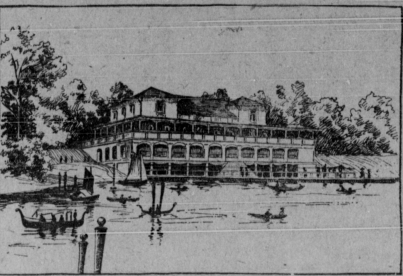

FORMED TO WHEEL TO THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Valuable Information For Those Who Contemplate a Trip to Buffalo and the Great Show Which Will Be There Next Summer.

The chief pleasure which a bicycle affords is to be found by touring in congenial company, over good roads, through an unfamiliar country abounding in the scenery of interesting historical associations. The central location of Buffalo brings it within easy touring distance of the principal cities of the Eastern and Middle States and the Dominion of Canada. Within a radius of 500 miles are the cities of Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Portland, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Indianapolis, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee and many other thriving and populous towns. Over one-half of the population of the United States and over two-thirds of the population of Canada reside within this radius. The opportunity which Buffalo has for being the coolest city in the country in summer time, its many miles of smoothly paved and heavily shaded streets and avenues, the fine buildings, magnificent electrical effects, beautiful landscapes and the multitude of attractions which surround the exhibitors of the Pan-American Exposition will make Buffalo the cyclists' Mecca next summer. Cyclists leaving within this distance of 500 miles stages on the roadside and call it sport. If this little maxim was borne in mind by old riders when out with those of less experience, we should see fewer weary and mud besetted men and women toiling homeward late in the evenings and ascertaining that holidays spent twined make the so called pleasure more disagreeable than a day spent in the office or factory.

The strongest and most experienced rider in the party should bring up the rear to assist the more inexperienced in case of accident and to encourage the weak or timid rider. A trip of eight or ten days will satisfy most riders, and if there is a spare day sandwiched in the middle on which rest is taken, the enjoyment of the tour will gain zest. The object of a tour is not the mileage covered, but the amount seen and the enjoyment derived from it. Much will depend on the nature of the country and the condition of the roads. Fifty to 75 miles a day should be the maximum distance even over the very best roads, and if the tourists are to get the most satisfaction from their outing and mount every morning full of ardor for the day's ride they will content themselves with from 40 to 50 miles a day. Early starts in the morning are a great advantage, for the temperature is cooler and the roads are less dusty. People who have really tried one speak enthusiastically of the joys of a day's ride, but it is to be hoped that no tenderfoot will be beguiled by these siren voices into getting up without his breakfast. The advisability of a rest in the middle of the day at least two hours is suggested by most if not all tourists. The first essential toward a successful from Buffalo are not living up to their possibilities if they fail to visit the Pan-American Exposition.

Valuable information on the most important subjects of human interest will be freely disseminated to all visitors. Knowledge of great interest and of unsurpassed value may be had for the price of admission. It will be a vast school of learning, where expensively illustrated information may be had for the asking. Concentrated experience of a lifetime, from which all the froth and foam of experimental failure has been eliminated, is being offered to the public. It is easy to make a mistake, and life offers plenty of opportunity for regrets, but it will be well to attend the Exposition and avoid this unfortunate consequence.

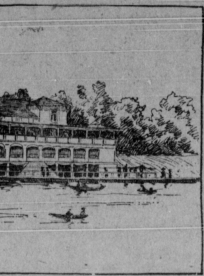

It will be impossible to visit the Exposition grounds even for a day without deriving both pleasure and profit. It will be impossible to conceive through a neighbor's description an adequate idea of the Exposition's wonderful beauty, its rare plants and flowers, its numerous patios, its elegant proportions, its odd scenes, its representative of the world's progress, its vastness and more than all its great comprehensive utility.

Cyclists who contemplate visiting the Exposition should begin making their preparations this winter in order to fully enjoy an enterprise of such importance. History of the different Pan-American countries should be read and descriptions of exhibits collected and studied in order to be prepared for the subjects of the greatest interest to individuals. It will be impossible to see everything without staying all summer, but by systematically laying out an intelligent plan much may be accomplished in a given time.

These winter evenings may be profitably employed by forming a club with a view to carrying out this idea. This club should be planned to include the financial arrangements for a tour of the Exposition, in which case it might be organized by a treasurer and secretary. The duty of the secretary would include all necessary correspondence in regard to information for the tour, and he would also be responsible for the hotel and other accommodations while the party is en route during its stay in Buffalo. If an club member should pay into the treasury a stated amount each week, a sufficient sum would soon be realized to meet the necessary expenses of the tour. The treasurer of the club should pay all bills while touring, while to another should be delegated the care of the baggage.

To make the tour thoroughly enjoyable the organizer of the club must make a careful plan of the routes to be followed, choose his companions for the trip and so arrange matters that he and his fellow tourers shall enjoy the maximum of pleasure without appreciable fatigue and at the smallest possible expense.

Bicycle touring cannot be enjoyed without the personal comfort of each member of the party being largely considered. The rider's bicycle should be carefully regulated to the pace set by the novices. As soon as riding becomes hard labor one might just as well dig a trench or break ful tour is to start in proper condition. The neglect of this consideration spoils more holidays than any other cause, making the work a toll instead of a pleasure and too often doing harm instead of good to the health of the rider. The intending tourist should practice caution for at least a fortnight before the start, beginning at very short stages and increasing the work daily until he has reached the maximum distance which he proposes to cover. During the earlier stages of his training he will probably find himself at the close of the day very stiff and sore and at night feverish and unable to sleep. It is a good rule for the tourist to have a good night's rest before the start. The article should have been tested by experience and should have had full time to accommodate itself to the idiosyncrasies of the rider or vice versa. A new saddle in particular is a fertile source of discomfort. However perfect it may be, it is to feel more or less a "misfit" for the first few days, and the same may be said of almost every part of the riding outfit. Each article should have had time to adapt itself to the figure of the rider and should have become as easy as the "break" of a shoe before the cyclist trusts himself to its tender mercies for a lengthened absence from home.

If not found desirable or convenient to make a bicycle tour to Buffalo, all cyclists are advised to take their wheels with them. Transportation by rail will be so cheap and so efficient that a very small outlay in time and money will enable even those living at a distance to make the trip. From any section of the city the Pan-American Exposition can easily be reached by wheel over smooth asphalt pavements or by foot over the sidewalks of the main thoroughfares of Buffalo.

Arrangements will be made for the comfort and convenience of cyclists attending the Exposition. Any additional or special information will be furnished on application to the Bureau of Publicity, Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo, N. Y.

TREMENDOUS FORCE.

Power of the Electric Current. Cabled From Niagara to Buffalo.

To look upon the cables of the transmission lines that extend all the way from Niagara Falls to Buffalo one fails to get any idea of the power of the force that is being transmitted by these cables; drawn taut there is no swaying in the wind. They stretch from pole to pole for mile after mile, but throughout their entire length there is nothing that gives an intimation of the wonderful work they are doing. Little wonder that the public is so prominently connected with the Niagara development, points out that the power that is so silently and inflexibly transmitted along the six copper conductors, less than one inch in diameter, would easily break six struts of equal diameter supporting at a rate of 10 miles an hour. Such is the wonderful force of the electric current from Niagara of which the Pan-American Exposition is to be just as well dig a trench or break

The Originator.

The people are always looking for the best goods at the lowest prices, because in a life of a few years a penny on each investment aggregates much. Look at it this way: On every dollar's worth of goods there is a saving of cents and suppose your bill for groceries would amount to one hundred dollars per year, this means dollars saved and if you use groceries for fifty years the saving is $5,000. Had the dollars been invested in a safe or in a pig each year the aggregate would have been enormous and the poor man would be a rich one. The farm hand and mechanic would be at ease. FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

Plum and North Middletown. Choruses of Song.

On Friday morning the writer was up before 5 o'clock for a trip to Bourbon county. The sun was then shining and the prospects for a fair day were encouraging.

All things appeared joyful and happy as our journey we pursued. Mother Earth smiled because of escape from the snow storm of the previous week. There were choruses of song from the field-lark, yellow hammer, blackbird, sparrow, wren; wheat and blue grass dotted back and herd; fruit trees in flower gladdened the eyes; a flock of wee chicks occupied the attention of mother hen, a pair of doves (not cooing) glided before us, rejoicing in each other's companionship and seemed to say, the one: "Where thou leadest I will follow," the other: "There is none lovelier than thou, thy voice is sweetest music to me, the sheen of thy plumage is most beautiful."

Gratitude and praise were everywhere. We would not overlook the lambs. Seldom do we notice evidence of thankfulness surpassing the inarticulate wobble of the lamb's tail as he takes his breakfast, dinner supper and lunch.

Let us men and women catch the spirit of praise and thanksgiving and rejoicing.

If you can, spend a day in the country among the birds and flowers. The procession with captivating song and banners of varied beauty is just begun. Fortunate is he who has the inclination and time to view it.

The suit by Mrs. B. F. Walls, of Union, for divorce and $15,000 damages has been withdrawn and again the course of love runs smooth.

* J. H. Derickson sold a mule to James McDonald for $85.

At the home of David Johnson we saw a pair of six-months-old blood hounds belonging to J. F. Johnson and J. H. Wilson. These pups were bought in Ohio and are said to be thoroughbred.

PLUM.

Since our last call W. R. Hopkins, son of J. H. Hopkins, has gone to house-keeping near the village. On February 30 he married Miss Frances Gertrude Thomson, daughter of A. R. Thomson.

James Huffstetter, aged 80, who lives across the Nicholas line, died on Tuesday, April 23, and was buried on Thursday at Carlisle. He was an honorable and highly respected old gentleman.

E. J. Gallagher, for many years a resident of Montgomery, is now engaged in blacksmithing and repair work. His brother William lives with him.

A telephone line has been completed from Carlisle as far as Plum. At present the country subscribers are Jeff and A. P. Bryant, Dr. P. L. McClure and W. L. Bramblett.

The extension of the line is undecided. A connecting line from North Middletown is talked of. The subscribers pay $2 for a box, and own it. The use of the line next year will be less—probably $5.

LITTLE ROCK.

Mrs. Mary Watkins, aged about 80 years, is seriously sick. Her son, D. B. Watkins has been an invalid since early last fall, and is confined to his bed.

J. W. Bramblett's five-year-old daughter has pneumonia.

Wm. Squires' daughter is much improved.

A. L. Soper, the merchant, was in Cincinnati.

Rev. H. B. Smith, now of Ashland, has been engaged to preach for the Christian church. He and family will occupy the parsonage. He begins next Sunday.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN.

On Friday A. S. Trimble sold to Moore, Everman & Mitchell the dry-goods stock of Trimble Bros., and conveyed by deed to J. A. and C. M. Jones his residence.

H. S. Caywood sold to G. W. Bramblett 35,000 pounds of tobacco at 7c. E. K. Thomas to same party about 26,000 at 7 1/2 and 6c.

The East Tennessee Telephone Co. will soon establish an exchange here. Will start with about 50 subscribers.

The American Telephone Co. have a large force, probably 70 men, pushing their line from the south to Charleston, W. Va., where eastern connections will be made. They were on Saturday one mile from town.

H. S. Caywood, John Collins,

Robt. Harris and A. Gilkey are experts in sheep culture.

This reminds us of the early bird which catches the worm—a pleasant experience for the bird but hard for the worm. We do not mean to say these gentlemen are "birds." They were a little premature in their calculations about the weather, so sheared their sheep before the storm which occurred on 19-21. Mr. Caywood lost 8, Collins 12, Harris 20, Gilkey 11. We heard that other farmers lost several.

There has been considerable talk about an electric railroad from Lexington to town. There is a disposition to guarantee right of way.

The most pleasant experience of the trip was our stay at the College on Friday night. We much enjoyed the talk with the principal, Mrs. J. B. Skinner. For the first time we met her corps of teachers. We are pleased to know the College is in a prosperous condition.

On Friday enroute to town we called at the country house of Rev. C. W. Dick. He had gone fishing. On Saturday we met Mr. Jas. Bryant and made inquiry of the parson. He had gone fishing. We wish him much success as a fisherman.

On Saturday morning enroute to Plum we stopped near the home of K. P. Moore, where is the Horton burying ground. The sacred spot is now in a pasture unprotected by fence or enclosure of any kind. Here are several graves—some of which have fine specimens of stone sarcophagi. The oldest slab which we saw bore the name of William Horton, born January 29, 1762, died July 2, 1842. The ravages of time have caused the reading of the inscriptions to be rather difficult. We were alone so could ask no questions. We reflected upon the passing away of the country grave yard—especially with the next generation.

On Saturday we passed through Plum, went by Pat Henry's store then to Shapsburg; shook hands; called on Mr. Z. T. Moffett and wife who now live in town since he sold his farm; heard something about the man who was "to be taken in" on the ground floor of the modern investment company; heard a merchant disparaging the building of an electric road to Mt. Sterling, preferring one from Lexington or Paris via Shapsburg to Owingsville or the regions beyond. The bell tapped at 4:50 p. m. and we were off for Mt. Sterling.

By experimenting we find if we smoke a cigar in the middle of a room the smoke goes first to the ceiling, where it spreads in every direction until it reaches the side walls, when it will descend.

This would indicate that we should admit fresh air at or near the center of the ceiling and draw the foul air from the different sides of the room near the base. There are two systems in use in our best stables. One forces the fresh air in, the other, the King system, draws the foul air out. As Mr. Converse prefers the latter, that is the system he will demonstrate at the Exposition.

It consists of an air stack with a hood, the opening of which is turned away from the direction from which the wind is blowing. To this main air pipe are attached feeders from different parts of the stable. These feeders have slide openings to admit and carry off the foul air from near the door at the sides of the stable. Fresh air is admitted through a central opening in the roof.

As the draft that is created by the hooded stack is sufficient to draw the bottom air from the stable, fresh air must go down through the central opening to take its place, and a change of air is a certainty. To prevent the intake from striking the animals too soon a small hole is placed under the opening which assists in directing the flow of fresh air along the ceiling. In this manner it mixes with the warm

STOCK AND STABLE.

STUDY OF VENTILATION OF INTEREST TO STOCKMEN.

Necessity of Cleanliness, Fresh Air and Sunlight to Produce the Best Results—System to be Used at Pan-American Exposition.

The Pan-American Exposition will prove to be of more genuine benefit to those interested in the proper care of live stock than any previous effort in this direction. Stable construction is a question that appeals with great force to every farmer who is anxious to secure good results. The question of expense is a great barrier to the proper building of this necessity. Unfortunately some of the early examples of good stables were built by men of large means, regardless of what the cost might be. As a result practical farmers were slow to take the matter up, as the idea of a properly constructed stable came at once associated with great expense.

One object of Mr. F. A. Converse, who has charge of the live stock and dairy products at the Exposition, in building a model stable at the Exposition is to contract this erroneous impression.

A properly constructed stable is not necessarily expensive one. Cleanliness, fresh air and sunlight, with a modulated temperature, may be obtained in a building of ordinary cheap construction if properly arranged. A light, cheap framework covered with paper which is protected with a sheeting of very common boarding and covered with a good roof makes a very good start. This should stand on ground that is well drained and exposed to the sunlight, but protected from cold winds. The floor should be of cement and carefully designed to facilitate cleanliness in every particular. Double exercise as well as dark blinds should be provided and made to fit properly.

A system of ventilation should be provided that will ventilate. Anything will do. By excluding the cold and the light ordinarily we also shut out the fresh air, without which no animal can thrive. Many stockmen are careful about the quality of the food, though careless about everything else in connection with the stable. In this manner they are protecting their stock in one direction while leaving them exposed in another.

Stable air is deteriorated by passing through the lungs. It is also being contaminated by chemical decomposition. Double exercise as well as the fumes arising from the fermentation of damp bedding, etc.

To thoroughly understand how to properly ventilate a stable it is necessary to study the circulation of air at changing temperatures, which is governed by heated rays and may be easily understood. Warm air is lighter than cold air. Generally speaking, foul air is heavier than fresh pure air from the outside, even at the same temperature. Starting from this well known principle, ventilation should be arranged accordingly. Fresh air should be let in at the top and the foul air taken out at the bottom.

By experimenting we find if we smoke a cigar in the middle of a room the smoke goes first to the ceiling, where it spreads in every direction until it reaches the side walls, when it will descend.

This would indicate that we should admit fresh air at or near the center of the ceiling and draw the foul air from the different sides of the room near the base. There are two systems in use in our best stables. One forces the fresh air in, the other, the King system, draws the foul air out. Popular Preacher Dead.

Rev. George S. Searee, aged 44 years, a native of Shelby county and pastor of the Versailles Baptist Church, died of pneumonia on last Wednesday. We knew George Searee when we were both natives of the same county, we were friends, and no better man than he ever lived. He was a preacher of ability; a modest yet active church worker; a man loved and respected. No citizen of Shelby county or preacher or pastor stood higher. He was a graduate of Georgetown college and of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. By his death the denomination, his church at Versailles and his family suffer a great loss. Though young in years he had been a well rounded life. His funeral was preached by Dr. J. R. Sampey, of Louisville, and a special train conveyed his remains to Shelbyville, where after service at the Baptist church in which the ministers of the various congregations participated his remains were, interred in Shelbyville cemetery.

PROFUSION OF LIGHT.

More Than Three Hundred Thousand Lamps at Pan-American.

It has been said that the Pan-American Exposition will be a Rainbow City by day and City of Light by night, and it is true it should prove the most beautiful sight of its kind ever created for the delectation of the human vision.

Much has been written about the illuminations of the Exposition, but the public is scarcely aware of the magnitude of the scene which is to be created by the use of incandescent lights in such generous profusion about the main court of the Exposition and the buildings immediately surrounding it. When one says that 300,000 of these lights are to be used, the figures look large, but they are nevertheless true. Nor does this include all the lights that are to be used in the general illumination of the Exposition, for on the Midway several concessions, such as the Thompson Aerio Cycle, Streets of Mexico and some others will use as many as 2,000 lights each. In the buildings and about the border of the grounds will be lights, while incandescent lamps will also be used by many individual exhibitors. Thus the figures 300,000 will be considerably increased. The illumination of the Electric Tower is going to be not only astonishing and novel, but truly artistic.

Automobile Exhibit.

The automobile has won such favor that the construction of these vehicles has become one of the important new industries of the world. In any new and prominent field like this the United States, with its wealth of active inventive minds, is expected to take the lead. That this country does lead will be demonstrated by the exhibit made at the Pan-American Exposition.

An Instructional Exhibit.

On the street, in the stores, in dwellings, all about, there is evidence of the advancement of that wonderful force, electricity. Is it any wonder that people in all walks of life, of all classes, want to know about it? This is why the electrical exhibits of the Pan-American Exposition are destined to interest and instruct so many.

Castoria, pure cathartic, cures constipation forever. No. 20. H. C. C. Co. full, druggists refund money.

Feeble Pulse,

pallor, fainting, smothering or sinking spells all point in the same direction—an impaired heart action. A heart that is weak or diseased cannot do full duty and the circulation of the blood is interfered with. There is a medicine that gives new strength to the heart, new power to the pulse and puts new color into cheek and lip.

"There was no color in my lips and cheeks, my hands and feet were always cold. I was very short of breath and often fainted like one dead. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure helped me and my health was restored."

Mrs. C. E. MARTIN, Ludlow, Cal.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

regulates the heart's action, while it stimulates the digestive organs to make new, rich, red blood which gives strength to the whole body. Sold by druggists on a guarantee.

Jail Delivery at Irvine.

On Sunday night, April 20, at Irvine, Ky., Jim Dehann, charged with felonies; Joe Spivey, indicted for shooting with intent to kill; Jim Lynch and Ves Gray, incarcerated to pay a fine for shooting on the highway, escaped from the county jail by removing some bricks beneath a window and sliding to the ground by a hanging blanket. Joe McDowell, ex-cashier of the Estill County Deposit Bank, charged with embezzlement, was in jail with them and was asked to fly also, but he declined.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Meat Market.

The Sterling Grocery Company are doing a fine business by meeting with every demand of the trade. They find it necessary to establish a meat market, and to that end have purchased a complete, up-to-date outfit and on Thursday last the business began. Only best beefs, mutton and hogs will be slaughtered. Their cutter has been reared in the business and knows it well. They deliver to any part of the city promptly. Telephone 122.

Nationites in Jail.

On Wednesday morning at Wheeling, Kan., Mrs. Carrie Nation, Mrs. Lucy William, Mrs. Julia Evans and Mrs. Lydia Muntz appeared before Judge D. M. Dale in the District Court and failed to give bond. They occupy one cell in the county jail and will remain there until a bond for $500 each is approved or until the trial at the May Term of Court.

Mr. editor I see in your last issue everything has gone wrong in the primary in your town, I am mighty discouraged. I lost heavily on Henry what has come over you ginnacrats down there. I was so sure Henry would prove a winner I slapped up every cent me and the old woman had on him, I am in for all a round, I believe Henry and all the rest of us ginnacrats had better call our committee to gether and see what is wrong. There must be something a little scattering sprung up in our ranks. I can't think it was caused for the lacking of macken oil as I no we were heeled all rite with the proper stuff that is usedly used to pilot us thrue. I heard one old bench leg jamk eater say Henry lost his one ward, my lord I hope that ant so there is a big diferece in runing and buying the sum say there were no boodie or bug juce in it this time. That may sound all rite to a man up a tree but it wont djest on an old solgers stomach, but wee will let her go at that as wee have more times a coming as the clouds role by. I did all I could to save our boys but as the tide were against us we will have to join Arganahlo and let um rip. I am going on the road soop as a lumber damner for a chicaga match factory. There is a emene quantity of white pine lumber used in the match business now. Wel boss I will write much this time as I am not so wel at present. I met with a little accedent last night. I wer out a little on the out skerts of town and it wer prey dark I past under a small tree close to a fence and I heard a little nois and I looked up the tree and as I thought it were crows rusting up in the tree I concluded I would get one or two for pets, as I havent to hav a emty sack with me I mounted the fence and grabed one, and it begin to flutter and bang went a gun and a few bird shot struck mee and I had to husel for home. I am prey sore now but mr moor says I am not dangerously hurt. I hope to be out all rite in a few days.

SUMMER COOL.

Mr. S. D. Simpson, of Albany, Ky., cashier and one-third owner of the Bank of Albany and Miss Soldie Cosny, daughter of H. C. Coahy, a druggist at Dixon, were married in Indianapolis Wednesday. There is a romance in their marriage in the fact that they met for the first time less than a week ago. Look out for divorce proceedings.

Abraham Lincoln's Remains.

At Springfield, Ill., the removal of the remains of Abraham Lincoln into the reconstructed Lincoln monument took place on Wednesday. The removal was conducted in the presence of Gov. Yates, State Treasurer Williamson, and Sup't. of Public Instruction Alfred Bayless, Commissioner of the monument.

Lepers in the Philippines.

It is estimated that there are 25,000 lepers in the Philippines, and it is planned to isolate all of them on one island. Maj. Maus, the Medical Inspector; Capt. Ahern, of the 9th Infantry, and Captain Quartermaster Horton comprise a board of officers appointed to select a suitable island for the place.

Don't cry. Tears do well enough in life, but are out of place in real life.

Fake Healers.

At Kansas City in the Federal Court Stephen A. Waltmer and Joseph H. Kelley, President and Secretary of the Welmer Institute of Magnetic Healing at Nevada, Mo., pleaded guilty to indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud.

The institute advertised to heal "all diseases known to man or woman," giving "absent treatment," and did such a tremendous mail order business that the Nevada post-office was raised from fourth to a first class office. What next?

Given a Life Sentence.

At Barbourville, Ky., John Hendrickson was given a life sentence for the murder of Calloway Carter in Clay county, last Christmas.

Does the Baby Thrive

If not, something must be wrong with its food. If the mother's milk doesn't nourish it, she needs SCOTT'S EMULSION. It supplies the elements of fat required for the baby. If baby is not nourished by its artificial food, then it requires

Scott's Emulsion

Half a teaspoonful three or four times a day in its bottle will have the desired effect. It seems to have a magical effect upon babies and children. A fifty-cent bottle will prove the truth of our statements.

LANGUID

Many a school-girl is said to be lazy and shiftless when she doesn't deserve the least bit of it. She can't study, easily falls asleep, is nervous and tired all the time. And what can you expect? Her brain is being fed with impure blood and her whole system is suffering from poisoning. Such girls are wonderfully helped and greatly changed, by taking

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Hundreds of thousands of schoolgirls have taken it during the past 50 years. Many of these girls now have homes of their own. They remember what cured them, and now they give the same medicine to their own children. You can afford to trust a Sarsaparilla that has been tested for half a century. 25¢ a bottle. All druggists.

If your bowels are constipated take Ayer's Pills. You can't have good health unless you have daily action of the bowels. 25¢ a box.

After Their Bondsman.

State Auditor Gus Coulter has addressed a communication to the Attorney General asking him to bring suit against the bondsmen of former Treasurer, Walter Day, and former Auditor John S. Sweeney for $29,926.13. This was the aggregate of checks paid out by them to Adj. Gen. Collier, Col. C. C. Mengel and others in January and February, 1900, under the head of active militia. The Auditor claims that this money was illegally paid out and that the bondsmen of Day and Sweeney should be held accountable for it.

Young Love's Dream.

They are young married people and have just gone to housekeeping, and the neighbors who assemble at their front windows to witness the harrowing sight of their parting for the day declare that the following is a verbatim account of their parting.

"Good-bye, Charlie; now be careful the street cars don't run off the track with you and—kiss me, Charlie—there was something I wanted to tell you—let me see. Was it hair pins? No, I got them—w-h-a-t could it have been?"

"I'm due at the office, pet," says Charlie, bracing up and looking very handsome and manly; "was it something to eat?"

"Why, of course it was; there isn't a bit of mashed potato in the house, not a mouthful of bread and butter. We want half a yard of borscht—see, and have it cut bias so it will be tender—and a loaf of sweetbread, Charlie, and a strawberry short cake, dear, and—anything else you think of, dear."

"But, my little wife," says Charlie, looking very wise, "these things must all be made before we can eat them."

"Must they? oh, dear, and I never learned to do fancy work! I never crocheted a biscuit fit to eat, and I couldn't paint a tomato to save my life. Oh, Charlie, go to the ready-made stores, do, there's a darling."

He did; and they had a picturesque meal of lobster and strawberries with baker's rusks and lemonade, but Charlie has written to his mother to come at once and pay them a long visit, they are so delightfully situated they can make it pleasant for her now, he says.—Detroit Post and Tribune.
